Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "entirely free" any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A publisher is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are the stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Why DO THEY?

Why do so many people trade at our house? Why do they come from far away as well as near at hand? Why do they return regularly, season after season? Is it sentiment or accident? No, neither. It is because they Save Money by trading with us.

The dominant feature of our house is that no garment goes out but that we are convinced will prove satisfactory to the wearer.

We only buy the nicest goods the market affords. They are selected by experienced buyers to suit the wants of our patrons and sold at the very lowest prices good goods can be sold for. Read the prices for our

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.

What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 7 o'clock at the Parlor. Let all of the Directors be present as it is a meeting of the utmost importance.

I. M. LANE, President.

Reader, has the thought ever occurred to you in planning your Christmas gifts that a Y. M. C. A. membership ticket, for your son or brother or some young man of your acquaintance, would prove to be a most acceptable present, from which the recipient would derive unlimited profit and pleasure throughout an entire year? The cost of such a ticket, (only five dollars, or but three for boys under fifteen) when compared with the many valuable privileges afforded to members of this excellent institution of our city, seems very small, and surely there are liberal-minded persons in Mayville who can and will plan to make some young man or boy, whose otherwise could not afford to join the Association, the happy possessor of a Y. M. C. A. membership ticket.

They Are Going, Going!

and will soon be gone. We have reference to the days that are passing so swiftly. Christmas will soon be here. Now is the time to visit our store and make your selections from our stock of beautiful goods, which was never so varied and extensive as now. It is a pleasure to show our goods, whether you buy or not; but we feel very certain you cannot resist the temptation, because so few leave without finding something to suit their taste as well as purse.

"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

The Cincinnati Post is holding an election on the Civil Service Law, and the latest figures show this result:

For repeal.....2,500
Against repeal.....1,500
Majority for repeal.....1,000

Twenty thousand Louisville Republicans signed a petition for the repeal of the Civil Service regulations, and it has been sent to Washington. Oh, no; the people of this country are not opposed to a life tenure in office—not at all!

Please tell us, Brother Deley, how you found out about "the half dozen or so" LEADERS that reach the Flemingsburg Postoffice? Did your Postmaster or any of his Deputies or Clerks or Letter Carriers tell you? If they did, that of itself will be sufficient cause for their removal.

Here's a sample of "reform" justice in Cincinnati. This man KEMSTON is the fellow whom the Supreme Court ousted from an office to which he was not entitled, and who on the occasion in question was acting Police Judge:

"I went into BILLIGHEIMER's place on Vine street to get a glass of beer, and while I was in there I missed my overcoat. I was perfectly sober, and began to ask questions regarding my coat, when I was arrested."

Such was the story of THOMAS HARRISON in Police Court Monday. Witnesses substantiated HARRISON's statement.

"Thirty days," declared Acting Judge KEMSTON.

The defendant looked dazed and did not move. The officers commenced to tug at his sleeve.

"Thirty days," said the Court again, in a louder tone.

"Good God, Judge! I haven't done anything!" shouted the prisoner struggling madly with the officer.

"Thirty days," said KEMSTON.

There was a fearful wail from a woman in the courtroom and a loud scuffle. The prisoner was overpowered and taken below. HARRISON's mother pleaded tearfully that her son be dismissed.

The boy's case was investigated further by several Court officers, and it was found that he had spoken the truth. This statement was placed before Acting Judge KEMSTON, and he dismissed HARRISON.

What a shame that there is no redress for such outrages as this of "reform" KEMSTON.

Maysville to Be Congratulated

THE LEDGER has heretofore mentioned the fact that Mr. John I. Winter of Augusta would, on the 1st day of January in the good year of 1898, become a resident of this city.

It is in position today to announce that Mr. Winter is practically with us, and from now henceforth all his interests will be identified with Maysville.

Surely, to the citizen who wishes well of his town, this is cause for congratulation; and it will be the fitting thing for Maysville to "shake hands with herself" over such a desirable acquisition.

Mr. Winter is a young man, he is full of the very life-blood of energy; his name, wherever known, is a synonym for integrity; and when it comes to "hustling" he is a Past Master in that art.

As an evidence of what Mr. Winter has done in one line of goods handled by him, we extract from The Deering Farm Journal of March, 1897, a brief account of his transactions in a single farm implement.

The article presents a half-tone portrait of the subject of the sketch, together with a view of the outdoor banquet that followed the delivery of an unusually large number of machines, and is as follows:

HOW THEY DO IT IN KENTUCKY.

If you want to see Deering enthusiasm just go anywhere in Mason or Bracken counties, Kentucky. Over 100 Deerings were sold there last year by one single Deering agent, Mr. John I. Winter, a hustling young business man of Augusta, Ky., and it looks as though the coming season would just about double the record of last. Last summer, just before the opening of harvest, Mr. Winter invited all the purchasers of Deering machines that season to be his guests at a grand picnic to be held in their honor.

In connection with the picnic was the public delivery of the machines sold—formed in line of a parade—and headed by a band.

We give pictures showing Mr. Winter's portrait, the Deering procession, and the picnic. In three years' time Mr. Winter has sold nearly 300 Deering machines in a territory so small as to seem decidedly unpromising to the average machine salesman. Every one of these purchasers, almost, has voluntarily given Mr. Winter a testimonial speaking in the highest terms of his complete satisfaction with the purchase. Competing companies, hearing of Mr. Winter's success, have sent an army of canvassers into these two counties, but a recent letter from Mr. Winter informs us that to the best of his knowledge, not one single order has been taken for a competing machine. In one single day last summer Mr. Winter booked orders for nine Deering Ideal Mowers.

The Bracken Chronicle says:

"The farmers began to arrive at 9:40 a. m., some of them having driven all night, and from that time on till 10 a. m. there was a continuous stream of wagons arriving, loading and then driving into parade line. At 10:15 Field Marshal W. E. Fife took charge of the parade which formed on Fourth street, and then drove to the Deering factory, where they were to be delivered to the purchasers."

The Deering procession was headed by a band, and the wagons were loaded with Deering machines.
